Ensuring Attendee Safety
COVID-19 and Updates on your GRC
at Mount Snow

How GRC is Supporting Your Health
GRC continues to monitor venue and state-wide practices, updating venue pages on a weekly basis. We are currently working with our venues to implement social distancing practices at our conferences in 2021 as needed.

As always, the health and safety of our communities are GRC’s highest priority, and we are working to ensure you’ll be able to join us safely and comfortably in 2021.

Mount Snow’s Commitment to You

- Mount Snow is now accepting reservations to be made.
- Ready to open for Ski Season this Winter. Masks will need to be worn on ski lifts. Click here for more information.
- Masks are required on Mount Snow property.
- All food and beverage options at Mount Snow are grab and go only at this time.

Vermont’s Current Regulations
(as of December 2, 2020)

- The state of Vermont is requiring people from out-of-state to enter after a 14-day quarantine or a 7-day quarantine after a negative test in their home state. Lodging is able to reopen at 50% capacity however, all out of state travelers must sign a Certificate of Compliance to confirm they have met all quarantine requirements.
- Governor Scott prohibits gatherings with people from other households. This includes both inside and outside social gatherings, in public and private spaces. This means that visitors to Vermont can only socialize with the people they are traveling with. They cannot gather with Vermonters or with people from another traveling group.
- Mandatory mask order is currently put into place.
- Information and updates from the Vermont Department of Health can be found here.
