

Ensuring Attendee Safety COVID-19 and Updates on your GRC at Southern New Hampshire University

How GRC is Supporting Your Health

GRC continues to monitor venue and state-wide practices, updating venue pages on a weekly basis. We are currently working with our venues to implement social distancing practices at our conferences in 2021 as needed.

As always, the health and safety of our communities are GRC's highest priority, and we are working to ensure you'll be able to join us safely and comfortably in 2021.

Southern New Hampshire University's Commitment to You

- SNHU will extend remote learning for on-campus students through the Fall of 2020 semester. There will be no in-person classes.
- Increased sanitation practices will be implemented, including:
 - Disinfecting common areas
 - Posting informative flyers about COVID-19
 - Incorporating more hand sanitizing stations across all facilities
 - Frequently changing trash receptacles

New Hampshire's Current Regulations (as of September 16, 2020)

- Out-of-state guests will be required to sign a document attesting that they've remained at a home for at least 14 days before arriving in New Hampshire. — All New England states are exempt.
 - Reopening New Hampshire
- Face coverings required at indoor businesses and highly encouraged while outside.
 - Masks required for gatherings or events of over 100 people.
 - Information and updates from the New Hampshire Department of Health can be found here.
