Ensuring Attendee Safety
COVID-19 and Updates on your GRC at Southern New Hampshire University

How GRC is Supporting Your Health
GRC continues to monitor venue and state-wide practices, updating venue pages on a weekly basis. We are currently working with our venues to implement social distancing practices at our conferences in 2022 as needed.

As always, the health and safety of our communities are GRC’s highest priority, and we are working to ensure you’ll be able to join us safely and comfortably in 2022.

Southern New Hampshire University’s Commitment to You
• SNHU will be holding classes in-person as regularly scheduled in Fall 2021.
• Increased sanitation practices will be implemented, including:
  • Disinfecting common areas
  • Posting informative flyers about COVID-19
  • Incorporating more hand sanitizing stations across all facilities
  • Frequently changing trash receptacles

New Hampshire’s Current Regulations
(as of June 17, 2021)
• Domestic travel within the U.S. outside of New England no longer requires quarantine upon return to NH, although people are recommended to still follow CDC’s travel guidance, including wearing a well-fitted face mask while traveling, practicing social distancing, getting tested 3-5 days after travel (with a molecular or PCR-based test), and limiting public interactions after travel (even if not required to quarantine).
• - Reopening New Hampshire
• Mask Mandate expired April 16—Gov. said this will not limit private businesses or cities and towns from requiring masks.
  - Information and updates from the New Hampshire Department of Health can be found here.
