Ensuring Attendee Safety
COVID-19 and Updates on your GRC at Southern New Hampshire University

How GRC is Supporting Your Health
GRC continues to monitor venue and state-wide practices, updating venue pages on a weekly basis. We are currently working with our venues to implement social distancing practices at our conferences in 2021 as needed.

As always, the health and safety of our communities are GRC’s highest priority, and we are working to ensure you’ll be able to join us safely and comfortably in 2021.

Southern New Hampshire University’s Commitment to You

- SNHU will extend remote learning for the Spring of 2021 semester.
- For students who are struggling with their learning environments at home, SNHU is offering the option for a limited number of students to live in campus housing during the Spring 2021 semester, while studying remotely.
- Increased sanitation practices will be implemented, including:
  - Disinfecting common areas
  - Posting informative flyers about COVID-19
  - Incorporating more hand sanitizing stations across all facilities
  - Frequently changing trash receptacles

New Hampshire’s Current Regulations (as of January 29, 2021)

- Effective 11/15 - Travelers/visitors to and residents of NH need to self-quarantine for 14 days following the last date of any high-risk travel, which includes international travel, on a cruise ship or domestically outside of the New England states for nonessential purposes.
  - Reopening New Hampshire
- On Nov. 19, Gov. Chris Sununu issued a statewide mask mandate requiring the use of face masks in all public places. The mandate took effect Nov. 20 and will remain in place until at least Jan. 15, 2021.
  - Information and updates from the New Hampshire Department of Health can be found here.
