COVID-19 and Updates on your GRC
at Salve Regina University

How GRC is Supporting Your Health

GRC continues to monitor venue and state-wide practices, updating venue pages on a weekly basis. We are currently working with our venues to implement social distancing practices at our conferences in 2021 as needed.

As always, the health and safety of our communities are GRC’s highest priority, and we are working to ensure you’ll be able to join us safely and comfortably in 2021.

Salve’s Commitment to You

- Due to a recent uptick in positive cases of coronavirus among our undergraduate population, Salve Regina has implemented a shelter-in-place order for all undergraduate students, which will remain in effect until at least 5 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 16. During this time, students must remain in their residence unless they need to leave for essential items such as groceries and medicine, outdoor exercise, COVID-19 testing or official University business.
- Health Services have been testing and monitoring population and provide new policies for social distancing and hygiene practices.
- Multiple hand sanitizing stations all around campus.
- Guests are allowed on a limited basis and must follow a wellness protocol, wear a mask and follow social distancing protocols.

Rhode Island’s Current Regulations (as of April 8, 2021)

- Indoor and outdoor catered events are permitted to take place, provided that indoor events do not exceed 75% of the venue’s seated capacity. Indoor catered events with more than 100 people and outdoor catered events with more than 200 are prohibited.
- Removed Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska, New Mexico and Wyoming off of travel advisory list.
- Masks are required at all times when you are with someone you don’t live with, per the Governor’s office and the Department of Health.
